Brandon Whitfield (bjw4ph) and David Stolz (dps7uh) 3/1/2017

Project 3 User Stories

1. User is able to view home page
   a. Users should be able to view the 5 latest listings from the Home Page
   b. User should be able to visit the pages of the 5 latest listings from the Home Page 2. User is able to view task page
   a. Task page includes all relevant information
   b. From a task page, a user should be able to go directly to the user page for the owner of the listing
   c. From a task page, a user should be able to go directly to the user page for the workers of the listing
   d. From a task page, a user should be able to go directly to all reviews associated with the listing 3. User is able to view user pages
   a. User page includes all relevant information
   b. From a user page, a user should be able to go directly to listings which a user owns
   c. From a user page, a user should be able to go directly to listings which a user has worked on
   d. From a user page, a user should be able to go directly to all of the reviews the users have created
   e. From a user page, a user should be able to go directly to all of the reviews of the user 4. User is able to view review pages
   a. View all relevant information for a review
   b. From a review page, a user should be able to go directly to the user page of the project owners
   c. From a review page, a user should be able to go directly to the user pages of the project workers
   d. From a review page, a user should be able to go directly to the listing pages associated with the review 5. User should be able to navigate the site easily a. All links work and site navigation is intuitive b. Helpful error messaging from lower layers passed to the user
   c. Bootstrap used to create clean, sleek look for the site